Course Introduction:

Brentwood Open Learning College is a committed provider of accessible, affordable and enjoyable distance learning opportunities of the highest quality. We believe that access to high quality learning should not come down to on campus study alone – precisely why we are delighted to offer a range of outstanding online management courses. This Level one management course online is ideally suited to those interested in taking their career and future education prospects to a much higher level. All course materials are included as standard and enrolment is open 365 days a year on a global basis. And with no deadlines or time restrictions whatsoever, our online management course works around you and your schedule.

Over the course of three insightful modules, you will explore what it is that the contemporary business manager does and what makes the difference between a manager and a leader. You will study resource management techniques and strategies, a series of common issues and challenges in the management profession and the importance of self-improvement to become the very best leader you can possibly be.
